The Auction dealership must have a working telephone that is listed with directory assistance in the auction dealership name.

➢ ISSUANCE OF THE AUCTION DEALER BOND TO REFLECT OWNERSHIPAND NAME OF AUCTION DEALERSHIP:

If applying as an individual owner, the bond will be issued as Name of individual owner dba name of dealership.

If applying as a partnership, the bond will be issued as Names of partners dba name of dealership.

Corporate owned or LLC owned auction dealerships: The corporation or LLC must be registered with the Nebraska Secretary of State.

If the name of the corporation or LLC already reflects auto auction, the name of the auction dealership can be the same. For example, Big Red Auto Auction, Inc. would be registered with the Nebraska Secretary of State and could be the name of the auction dealership. The bond would be issued as Big Red Auto Auction, Inc.

Otherwise, the bond would be issued as the corporation or LLC dba name of the dealership. An example would be, Jones and Sons, LLC dba Panhandle Auto Auction, in which case Jones and Sons, LLC would be registered with the Nebraska Secretary of State. The auction dealership's sign, telephone number, and advertising would be in the "doing business as" (dba) name: Panhandle Auto Auction.

The bond with original signatures and notary must be submitted with the auction dealer's license application. An out of state agent must provide a copy of their Nebraska Producer's License. The applicant should keep a copy of the bond for their records.

Submit the completed application and supporting documents to our office. No fee is collected until after the auction dealership has been inspected and approved by our office. An investigator from our office will contact you to schedule an inspection.

After the inspection send to our office the Inspection Report, any additional required items, and the fee in the proper amount made payable to MOTOR VEHICLE INDUSTRY LICENSING BOARD.
